

IUOE LOCAL 98 OUT-OF-WORK LIST PROCEDURES AND RULES

Objectives and Principles

1. IUOE Local 98 shall establish and maintain a non-exclusive Out-of-Work List to be utilized by Local 98 members who are currently in good standing and who are seeking employment that falls within the craft jurisdiction of Local 98. The Out-of-Work List Procedures and Rules shall supplement all of the Local 98 trade rules, the various Local 98 collective bargaining agreements, the Local Union's Bylaws, and the IUOE Constitution.
2. The Out-of-Work List Procedures and Rules shall be implemented and administered in a non-discriminatory manner with respect to all individuals. Procedures and Rules

3. Eligibility for referral commences upon a Local 98 member properly registering on the Out-of-Work List in the manner and form as prescribed by the Local.

5. Failure to abide by or comply with any of the provisions listed herein shall render a member ineligible to obtain employment via the Out-of-Work List. A member's ineligibility to utilize the Out-of-Work List shall remain in full force and effect until such time that the member in question can sufficiently prove that he/ she has taken all necessary steps to restore his/ her eligibility in accordance with these Procedures and Rules.

Members that are unavailable for dispatch shall contact the Hall and remove themselves from the Out of work list for a period of time, If the Local is unable to contact the member within a reasonable time period, then the member will be deemed "unavailable" for the interview or employment. Once deemed unavailable for dispatch the member will be removed from the Out of Work List.
8. Local 98 recognizes the fact that Employers have the right to employ workers from the open market, subject to the provisions of the various Local Union's collective bargaining agreements. Local 98 will use its best efforts to honor any and all reasonable requests from an employer, subject to these Procedures and Rules, the various Local Union collective bargaining agreements, the Local 98 trade rules, the Local Union's bylaws, and the IUOE Constitution. In order for such an employer request to be considered, the member being requested must provide the appropriate Business Representative or the Dispatcher with the following information: (1) the name of the contractor that the member will be employed by; (2) the location of the project or facility; and (3) the job title/classification that the member is being employed in.

If a member accepts a job referral and thereafter fails to show up at the potential employer's facility and/or fails to make the required contact (telephone call, e-mail, etc.) with the potential employer, then the member shall be displaced to the bottom of the Out-of-Work List unless the member is able to sufficiently prove a reasonable excuse based upon good cause. If a member has a pattern of not showing up for a dispatch, he may be removed from the Out of Work List. This will be documented with an Incident Form and placed in the member's file. The member will be removed from the Out of Work List for the current work season. Once the new work season commences, the member can contact the Union Office and be placed back on the Out of Work List.
