RESCU: Recovering Community United

Whether you're active or former law enforcement, fire, military, corrections, EMT/paramedic, or crisis healthcare worker—if you're struggling with addiction to drugs or alcohol, we can help. Our RESCU program is designed to address and assist with profession-related obstacles you may be facing, so you can gain lasting recovery from drugs and alcohol.

Since anonymity is critical for you to be able to focus on your treatment and recovery, we are committed to your privacy. You will be immersed in a tight-knit community of peers, and recover alongside individuals who share similar life and professional experiences.

Get the customized help you need:

- Staff with professional lived experience
- First responder and peer professional group therapy
- Return-to-work strategies
- Trauma treatment
- Comprehensive case management services
- Psychiatric and nutritional consultation
